SOFT BALL TEAMS ARE ACTIVE

Series of Games—Best of Season Played Friday Night—Coming Games

The best game of the season was played Friday night between the Racketeers and the Mobile Express. J. V. Bontemps held the Expressmen to two hits; while Cotton was touched for 8 singles. J. V. also added a home run and single to his batting average. It was a hard game to lose, but Manager Horlock's men deserve credit for playing heads-up ball. The Racketeers are showing great form as the season progresses, and from now on his team will be the team to beat. Right now they are really hitting that ball and the general average for the entire team is .478; in this respect they are leading the league.

In the second game the Shell marched on by taking the measure of the Cedar Point Stars, 9 to 2. For a while things looked bad for the Shell, but after a while they got their big guns working and really shelled the opposing pitcher. Bopp was the leader in hits, getting three out of four. James Ladner poked the longest hit of the season when he sent the ball to the gate in center field, and circled the bases in the meantime. Arceaux and Price worked for the Shell, the batteries for the Cedar Point were Bourgeois and Johnson.

The Commissioners led by Grady Perkins brought gloom to the camp of the Expressmen for the second time when they won 10 to 6 Monday night. The Mobile Express hit well, as a matter of fact they out-hit the Politicians, but they made 5 errors and these errors lost the game. Grady's men hit the ball well and made only one error. Bobby Strong got three hits out of three. The veteran Tom Monti showed up the youngsters with two hits out of three. Tuga Glover's fielding was really sensational.

The Knights of Columbus played the Mid-City Stars without the services of three regulars. Red Favre, Walter Favre, and John Ladner were absent due to the death of Miss Emma Ladner, their aunt. Manager Scafield placed a good team on the field and finally downed the Stars 7 to 5. This was a wild game filled with errors and disputes. For the good of the game we trust that the scenes of Monday night will not be repeated.

Coming Games
Friday night—July 24th—Racketeers vs. Shell. This promises to be the bad luck day for the Shell. It looks like the Gambler will be the team with the best chance to dethrone the Shell.

Second game Friday night—Cedar Point Stars vs. Clerks. The Point boys are improving with each game, and they have a good chance to take the measure of the Clerks.

Monday night—July 27th—K. C. vs. Mobile Express. Vincent's men will be hard to beat Monday night. The last two games will bring them back fighting.

Second game—The Commissioners will be right in their swinging at the Shell. They expect the Racketeers to soften them up, and then Monday night Politicians hope to deliver the goods. Don't miss these games.

Standing of league on page four.

DEDICATING A POPULAR FEATURE OF THE ECHO

FOR lack of room a few weeks The Echo failed to publish the column feature, "The Echo Cooking Class." This brought several letters of inquiry. Later a week or two was missed and a flood of letters from away and local inquiries unmistakably manifested how interested are our readers. Thus encouraged the feature will be continued henceforth uninterrupted and since the column is principally for interest of the feminine reader, although many do not actively nor regularly cook, as a compliment to this department each week will be respectfully dedicated to some lady. Dedication begins this week and, in consideration to the first lady of the city the honor is extended to Mrs. G. Y. Blaize. A new name will appear each and every week. The recipes are choice and protected. None of these are to be published in book form or used for any printed purpose without first procuring permission from The Sea Coast Echo. They may be clipped and used for a private cook or recipe book. A wide range is covered.

JOHN BRYAN WINS NET TITLE IN TOURNAMENT ON BAY TENNIS COURT

Wins Over Younger Brother In Finals — Week-End Series of Engaging Interest

John Bryan, second seeded junior, won in straight sets over his younger brother, James, in the Bay St. Louis Junior singles finals. The elder Bryan was extended in the second set, which he finally won at 7-5, easily winning the others at 6-0 and 6-2, here the past week-end.

In the first set John outstayed his erratic opponent, returning everything to the base line and occasionally attempting drop shots. In the second the younger Bryan ran up a lead of 4-1 before his brother could find himself, but the latter, finding the range with his forehand ran the set out at 7-5.

After the second game of the third set the stout James' powerful drives began to tell upon him and Bryan, rushing the net behind his ground strokes, easily won the set and match, allowing his opponent but two games.

In an unexpected upset, Third Seeded Richard Logan and James Bryan defeated the favorites, John Bryan and Eddie Hogg, to capture the doubles finals 7-5, 6-4. Both teams made repeated errors but Logan's volleying pulled out the match as the elder Bryan, tired from his singles match, wavered in the last game of the final set.

SOON TO SET DATE CITY ELECTION

Democratic Executive Committee to Meet And Set Date of Primary

A meeting of the City Democratic Committee is slated to be called in the near future, preparatory to holding the municipal primary election. While it is not officially announced, we understand the date for the primary will be held October 3, while the general election to follow will be held at the date already set by law, the first week in December.

There are seven avowed candidates for municipal office. Possibly others might appear above the political horizon before the dead line is set by the Executive Committee. Three for the mayoralty, including the present incumbent, Hon. G. Y. Blaize, and four for commissioner in addition to the present incumbents, Commissioners W. L. Bourgeois and H. Grady Perkins.

However, the formal newspaper announcement is definitely accepted and the race then begins in earnest. That time is generally set after the Democratic Committee promulgates the date of election.

HOSPITAL NOTES FOR WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koch, Jr., announce the birth of a baby boy Sunday, July 19, at the hospital. Both baby and mother are doing nicely.

Mrs. Rufus Shaw is a medical patient at the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheat announce the birth of a baby boy born at the hospital Sunday, July 19th. Mother and the new arrival are both doing well.

Mrs. Alphonse Adams continues ill. Mr. Dione Ladner of Kiln is a medical patient at the hospital. Mr. Granel Brandt who has been confined on account of a broken ankle is still kept in his room. Mrs. Mary Toca and baby left the hospital for their home Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Necaise left the hospital Wednesday of this week after receiving treatment. Baby Dan Dauro of Long Beach, died Tuesday night at the hospital.

ATTORNEY GEX TO RETURN HOME

Attorney W. J. Gex, Sr., of the law firm of Gex & Gex, who left here during the early part of June for a steamer trip from New York City to San Francisco, Calif., by way of Panama Canal, is reported much benefited by his sea journey of relaxation and recreation and also from his stay in the cool and reinvigorating climate of San Francisco's summer weather, where he registered at the Sir Frances Drake Hotel, and from which point he is reported as leaving this week by rail on the return trip to New York City. From the Metropolis he plans to return home again, resuming railroad travel. It will be interesting and gratifying to learn he has entirely recovered from the indisposition that kept him on the sick list many weeks prior to his departure for the Pacific.

BENEFIT BALL FOR KING'S DAUGHTERS' DEBT FUND SCORES

Representative Assembly Dance to the A. M. Hours — Hospital Debt Fund Assisted

Scoring an unqualified success, the benefit dance given at Uncle Charlie's Nite Club Tuesday evening resulted in both financial and social measure. Blue Melody Orchestra of Bay St. Louis discoursed their usually splendid music and dancing continued until the early morning hours. Mrs. A. F. Fournier, president King's Daughters organization, expressed her thanks and appreciation for the assistance rendered and the help in dollars the benefit resulted to help lift the debt fund of the hospital building.

Mrs. Fournier was ably assisted. Mrs. Leo W. Seal and Mrs. Kenneth W. Pepperdine were chairladies of the committee giving the benefit, assisted by Mrs. (Dr.) James A. Evans. Mr. Pepperdine and Dr. Evans were stationed at the door and attended to the finances for the time being. Mrs. Hubert de Ben was chairlady in charge of the floor show, procuring the splendid program, floor show, generously staged by Miss Emelda Troxler, of the Troxler Studio of Dancing, New Orleans and the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Mr. Walter J. Gex, Jr., announced the program numbers by means of the loud speaker equipment of the club.

Mr. Chas. A. Breath, owner of the club, donated the use of the premises for the occasion outright. Mrs. Abigail Bourgeois, owner and operator of The Answer, gave the large and beautiful cake that was raffled and which carried the sum of $30.00. This cake was won by Mrs. Chas. Moreau, Master James Evans 'pulling the number from the hat.'

On outstanding feature of the evening was the dance program by Miss Troxler and a number of her younger pupils, numbers that won instant admiration and subsequent plaudits. Miss Troxler gave a character Spanish dance to the music of "Is It True What They Say About Dixie?" liberally endorsed.

Miss Louvaine Tonglet, the "lady in blue," gave two separate dances, the "Lady in Blue," and "Indian Tap."

Young Miss Jerry Karst danced to the music of "Clap My Hands." Little Miss Elsie Gelpi presented a pleasing number to the music of "Breaking In a Pair of Shoes," and Miss Rosemary McDonald, the child wonder, gave a difficult acrobatic dance with marked artistry.

Miss Troxler's pupils danced for "sweet charity sake," neither their instructress nor they charging for any expense by their coming for the occasion.

It might be well to know the hospital has a remaining debt of $1200 on which the interest for last year had not been met. The results of the dance, not yet definitely known, will help pay the delinquent interest. The hospital called upon to do so much charity work in city and county results in a heavy and constant drain on limited revenues. Any one wishing to help a cause of mercy may remit cash donations to Mrs. Fournier or to any member of the Kings Daughters. Contributions left with The Echo will be remitted. This will be credited to the debt fund.

Troxler School of Dancing Opens New Studio at 'The Pass'

Opening of a new studio of the dance at Pass Christian has been announced by Miss Emelda Troxler, Gulfport dancing teacher, who has for some time successfully conducted a school in the Crystal ballroom of the Hotel Markham.

Miss Troxler will conduct her school at Pass Christian in the pavilion of the Hotel Miramar. Classes will be held beginning at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The Bay St. Louis class will meet on Wednesday mornings from 9 to 10:30 and the Gulfport class from 1 to 4.

TO GIVE COW AWAY.

One of the features of the Mid-Summer Fair for the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, will be the raffle of a fine milk cow, donated by Mr. Otto Briede, Sr. Mr. Briede is always careful in choice of his stock, and we feel that the winner of this raffle will win a real prize. The raffle will be drawn Sunday August 9th at the Catholic Church Fair.

YOUNG MAN RECOVERING

The Echo notes with more than ordinary degree of satisfaction the continued improvement in the condition of Henry Stechman, whose condition in a New Orleans hospital recently was considered quite grave and little or no hope was held for his recovery. Mr. Stechman, recently returned home, as noted, is able to be about, his condition showing decided improvement from day to day, so to speak.

CROWDS TO GULF COAST THIS YEAR BREAK RECORD

IT WILL BE of particular interest to out-of-town readers of The Sea Coast Echo to learn Bay St. Louis, Waveland and the balance of this summer resort section has the largest number of visitors and season residents known in years, compared to increased population. It has been authoritatively stated the crowds exceed those of all other years.

Week-end visitors in number have no parallel. And the Fourth of July week-end broke all time records. Where the visitors came from aroused the interest of the casual observer.

While Labor Day week-end always exceeds all records it is stated the Fourth week-end exceeded all Labor-Day crowds.

The question arises, with the opening of the N. O.-Coast Short-cut to regular traffic and the many added attractions of the Coast this year, what will be the record for Labor Day, '36? Expectations run high and it is a safe wager none will be disappointed.

New Orleans is getting closer to the Bay Section all the time. The Mississippi Gulf Coast has gotten to be the playground of the good "city" folks. They are welcome and may their tribe increase.

MISS EMMA LADNER PASSES ON

Native Bay St. Louis, Aged 75 Years, Sainted Woman Goes to Rest—Buried Tuesday

A profusion of delicate and fragrant flowers marked the newly-made mound at Cedar Rest Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at which place and time the remains of Miss Emma Ladner had been consigned to the keeping of mother earth, under the ingratiating shade of wide-spreading boughs of an oak centuries old.

The Rev. Leo F. Fahey, assistant pastor church of Our Lady of the Gulf, and personal friend of the family, had previously officiated at the home of the deceased in Citizen street, followed by the usual ceremony at the church and finally at the last rites in the city of the dead where the majority gone before rest in peaceful and hallowed sleep.

Miss Ladner was a member of one of the oldest and outstanding families in this section of Hancock county. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Ladner. She was a native of Bay St. Louis, aged 75 years. The end came after an illness of some ten days.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. (Widow) Joseph L. Favre, Bay St. Louis; two brothers, Judge Alcide Ladner of this city and by Victor Ladner resident of Lakeshore, Miss. She was an aunt of Alphonse G. Favre, clerk of the courts of Hancock county. Only last September she lost a brother Cyril Ladner, with whom she made her home at the old family homestead in Citizen street. His passing away left an aching void in the home, although her relatives and urged her living with them. But true to tradition that makes for home ties and ever lasting sentiment, she preferred to live in the memories of the dear old place that she called and knew as home all her life. Here it was that mother, father, brothers and sisters and other relatives had lived and with them she shared the joys and sorrows as well that come to one's life. She cherished the hallowed memories and lived them over again.

Miss Ladner was a devout member of the Catholic church and lived as such. Her long life was filled with the glory of good and kindly deeds. Her hands folded, she had finished her labors. A long life had been worthily spent and it well may be said the world was made better by her having lived.

ANNOUNCES ANNUAL CHURCH FAIR

Parishioners of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, through the offices of their beloved pastor, announced their intention Sunday holding the annual mid-summer festival and garden party on the grounds of St. Stanislaus College, Bay St. Louis, on Saturday and Sunday, August 8th and 9th. Mrs. Edmund F. Fahey is general chairlady ably assisted by other ladies. This alone signifies the success of the benefit. New Orleans visitors attend this annual event and are generous with their patronage.

SISTER OF BAY CITY RESIDENT DIES AT L. BEACH SUDDENLY

Mrs. Corinne Seeuws Passes On At Midnight Friday Of Last Week

Mrs. Corinne Seeuws, wife of J. F. Seeuws, and a sister of Leo Ford, resident of Bay St. Louis, died at her home at Long Beach, Miss., unexpectedly at the midnight hour of Friday, a native of Louisiana, born March 20, 1881. Mrs. Seeuws had been ailing from time to time and had quite recently returned from an automobile journey to and from the centennial exposition at Dallas, Texas. Whether the strenuousness of the trip and the intense heat of the panhandle section of Texas, was too much for her was not stated.

Deceased was a native of New Orleans, daughter of the late Judge Thomas J. Ford and Annie Murphy. In addition to her husband and brother a son survives, Thomas Ford Seeuws, resident of Hattiesburg, Miss.

The remains were taken to Gulfport from which place funeral services were held at the Lang Funeral Chapel Saturday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock, the Rev. William Kelly, of the Catholic faith, conducting the last rites, after which the body was transferred to New Orleans for burial in the family plot.

Mr. Ford, residing here, traveling in commercial pursuit was notified at a point in Iowa, of his sister's demise.

Mrs. Seeuws was no stranger in Bay St. Louis, visiting relatives and friends here frequently. Mr. Seeuws is well known locally, bookkeeper for a long time in the offices of the former Chevrolet agency, Washington street. He and the family have the sympathy of a wide circle of acquaintances in Bay St. Louis.

Final funeral ceremony was held in New Orleans from a mortuary home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with religious ceremony from the Church of the Immaculate Conception (Jesuits), Baronne street, attended by many friends from the West Coast section.

Seekers of Pleasure Increase at Uncle Charlie's Saturdays

The young and other amusement-lovers will find Uncle Charlie's Nite Club, Bay St. Louis, a delightful rendezvous for Saturday nights and to the delightful strains of Blue Melody Orchestra find dancing a supreme pleasure for Terpsichorean devotees. Summer visitors and local residents meet in large numbers each week-end and enjoy the hours that fleet by all too quickly. Uncle Charlie is ever striving to please and how well he is succeeding is well attested to by the increased patronage each and every Saturday night. It is the oldest night club on the coast. It has stood the severe test of time.

RECOVERING FROM TONSILAR OPERATION

Hon. Emilio Cue, local Shell Petroleum products representative for this section, and prominently identified in business and financial circles, is rapidly recovering from a tonsillar operation, which took place at Touro Infirmary, New Orleans, last week, Dr. Comisky surgeon in charge. Mr. Cue has been a victim of malarial and other untoward conditions and the surgical ordeal was declared imperative in order to remove the underlying causes of his ailing condition.

ZERR'S SWEET SHOP PROTECTS CHILDREN.

Zerr's Sweet Shop, located opposite A. & G. Theater, carries an advertisement in this issue of The Echo we wish to specifically endorse, to the effect small boys and girls are requested to keep away from the slot machine. The advertisement says, "Do not play, please." Such devices of minor entertainment are for adults only—that is the intention, and Zerr's Sweet Shop wishes to strictly adhere to this point. Elders have no fear of sending their children to the shop. They will not spend their nickels as an adult mind would so direct.

ATTEND SENATOR HARRISON'S OPENING ADDRESS

Among the visitors from this section to attend the opening campaign address of Senator Pat Harrison, candidate for re-election, which occurred recently at Crystal Springs, were His Honor, Mayor G. Y. Blaize, who was accompanied by Mayor Milner of Gulfport; Walter J. Gex, Jr., Robert L. Camors, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Phillips, Mrs. Stella Gex, and others.

E. J. Adam, president board supervisors, Harrison county, is rapidly recovering from an operation for cataract over his left eye and is well and active again.

BISHOP DOBBS OF SHREVEPORT TO BE SPEAKER AUGUST 2

On Occasion of Dedication Of New Methodist Church Sunday School Bldg.

Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs of Shreveport, La., will preach at the Methodist Church at 11 o'clock, A. M., August 2nd.

Immediately following the sermon he will dedicate the new Church School building. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Bishop Dobbs is a great preacher and a great Christian. He has a message to all and is worthy of a large assembly to hear him, irrespective of creed. The Rev. J. E. Gray, pastor, by this medium extends an invitation to the public to attend the services and dedicatory exercises and will appreciate a liberal response.

The handsome and commodious annex building to the church, finished last year is a credit to the community and the endeavor of the faithful. The occasion will be an auspicious one. Sunday, August 2.

CITY ECHOES

—In response to an inquiry who were purchasers of various properties recently published in mortgage foreclosure sales by the federal Home Loan Corporation, the answer is that in each and every case the government became the owner thru purchase. Several more publications of the kind are to appear in the near future, so we understand.

—Rev. Charles E. Liles and family have moved temporarily to Pass Christian where he has assumed the pastorate of the Trinity Episcopal church, succeeding for the time being the Rev. Gerault Jones, rector, who has answered a call to larger fields in New Orleans. It is probable Mr. Liles will return to the Bay St. Louis charge during the winter to reside here, although he is serving in that capacity for the Bay church while residing at Pass Christian.

—After spending a vacation extending over a period of two weeks, Reginald N. Blaize recently returned to El Dorado, Ark., where he holds a prominent and lucrative position of trust with oil interests of that section. While here he visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Blaize, his sisters the Misses Julia and Regina Blaize and brother John B. A busy man at his post of duty, this is the first visit home within the period of a year. His friends were glad to see him again.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ansley have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Veazley, residents of New Iberia, La., who number with the many who are enjoying the delights of the Bay shore and city during the warm season and their generous expressions will attest to the fact they are having an enjoyable stay. Speaking of fast-growing New Iberia, Mr. Veazley said, "Our city and surrounding territory have never felt the pressure of the economic upheaval. On the contrary, we have grown and progressed at a pace "that results will manifest."

—Misses Martha and Elizabeth Loog, twin daughters of Mrs. Mabel Cazeneuve Loog and the late Robert Loog, spent some time here guests of their aunts, Misses Ruth and Irene Cazeneuve. These lovely sixteen-year-old girls, were much admired and made many friends during their visit to the Bay. It was the occasion of much merriment when one was positive they were talking to Elizabeth to fire out it was Martha. They are beautiful, bright and full of the joy of living and like their aunt Ruth have a keen sense of humor.

—Mr. and Mrs. Norwood N. Hingle of New Orleans and their two children, Norwood, Jr., and Beverly, spent the week end in Bay St. Louis, visiting friends. They were joined by their friends Mr. and Mrs. Lampton and two children, also of New Orleans, Sunday and the party spent the day at Pine Hills. Both gentlemen are enthusiastic golfers and young Hingle, who is champion of the Colonial Golf Club of New Orleans, enjoyed playing over the popular course. The party returned to their homes Sunday evening after what they termed a "grand visit" to the Coast section. The Hingles are frequent visitors and are always warmly welcomed by a number of friends locally.

Battle of the Century Will Be Played Sunday Night For Local Benefit

The battle of the century will be held when the ladies soft ball teams, the Stouts vs. Slims, meet Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Second game to follow will be the Commissioners vs. Picayune. There will be plenty of entertainment, thrills and excitement to warrant a record-breaking attendance. The benefit is for St. Margaret's Daughters' charity fund, of which the organization will have plenty to say in a series of articles beginning next week.

MANY NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY

Liberal Donations to Free Shelves—New Books Purchased For Free And Pay Section.

Since last report of additions to the Hancock County Free Library, Mrs. C. A. Farwell has donated sixteen books, Mrs. Vivian Prague has given seven, and a generous number of late magazines for the long table have been contributed by Mrs. Hamilton.

There have been several purchases for the free shelves, all standard, enduring titles whose appeal goes on through the years. To round out the trilogy begun by Mutiny on the Bounty, Men Against the Sea and Pitcairn Island have been procured. Then there is Hamlin Garland's Son of the Middle Border; Kate Douglas Wiggin's ever-new Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm; Richard Halliburton's Glorious Adventure; Just Patty, by Jean Webster; Wind in the Willows, by Kenneth Grahame; Return of the Native, by Thomas Hardy; Cruise of the Cachalot, by Frank Bullen. Last comes the world-famous book written by Jean Rudolph Wyes. The one your children like, that you read at the age of nine, that your father, and perhaps your grand-father enjoyed as much as you did. What, you do not remember it? I mean the good old perennial Swiss Family Robinson, of course.

There are two new books for the pay shelf, too. They are South Riding by Winifred Holtby and Elma Godchaux's Suburban Roots.

Patronage of the library continues in increasing amount; but we have noticed in our recent visits that the children are outnumbering the grown-ups in attendance. Of course the heat holds less discomfort for the youngsters. A trip to the library in this heavy sun may not be easy; but consider the ability of a good book to banish thought of the weather when combined with your favorite chair in a shady spot. When not busy one may of course sit and think, or merely sit; but the time flies faster when your mind is riding with D'Aragon or trudging over the moors with David Balfour. Sitting still and keeping cool are easy then.

Or if you want to do something with your hands, have you tried the Jigsaw Puzzle Murder? It is not only a good yarn; but the solution is found at the end in a really good jigsaw puzzle. Read the book, work the puzzle and the mystery is a mystery no more. Jigsaw Puzzle Murder is on the pay shelf.

SEAGULL PLACE OF ASSEMBLY FOR MANY ACTIVITIES

"The Seagull," handsome and attractive rendezvous for many in and out of town where good things to eat are featured, and served differently, number of their meals at the Seagull reaches its zenith. Mrs. Annette Gillespie-Elmer as hostess is scoring quite a success, with a new place of a thousand personal touches.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Patton, residents of Los Angeles, Calif., who spent a few days here recently, went to house-keeping but took quite a number of their meals at the seagull. "This is truly a place of good eats, a place that is different and suggests the thousand and one such places that we have in and around Hollywood and Los Angeles, accentuating on seafood."

It is not generally known but Mrs. Senator Huey P. Long, Miss Rose Long, Dr. McFadden of Omaha, and others constituted a group that drove out from New Orleans and had dinner at The Seagull.

D. D. Curran, of the Canal Bank, at New Orleans, is another devotee of the Seagull for "good things to eat." One night a week he drives out from New Orleans with party of friends for dinner. He says it gives him something different to look forward to every week.

Miss Hermine Booth, who resides at a local hotel, enjoyed a visit from her sister the past week-end and entertained her, with others at dinner at The Seagull.

Mayor Wamsley of New Orleans and the Coast entertained a party at dinner Monday evening of this week at The Seagull. One of the prominent debutantes of the past social season at New Orleans was a member of the prominent party.

Another party noted at this resort for lunch Tuesday was Mrs. (Dr.) W. M. Hall of Bay St. Louis, who had as her guests for lunch Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Centerville, Miss., and aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Calma Lazard Kohler, whose knitting class meets every Tuesday and Friday morning at 10 o'clock, is another feature for the popular rendezvous.

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES FOR BAY ST. LOUIS.

ORGANIZED recreation is receiving more attention every year. It is a vital question in crowded cities and in the course of years will be important all over the nation.

Small towns are apt to postpone the purchase of land for parks and playgrounds until too late. The citizens look round at the open spaces and say, "We have plenty of room."

In a few decades their children will be wondering how they could have been so foolish, and how well this applies to Bay St. Louis goes without saying. The city park, located on Railroad right-of-way and Second street, is all very well, to say nothing of the railroad hazard to children who run and play but there should be a recreational park on the beach front. Bay St. Louis has long ago slipped up on this. It might not yet be too late to procure some suitable location. A public pier for recreation is also another crying need and a swimming beach is well an 'aching void.' We have waited or postponed these things so long that the fear is expressed the time is too late. However, regardless of all that may be said the city should have a public park somewhere on the land side of the beach front.

The Jackson bar is composed of 150 lawyers.

Why wait until you belong to some club to be friendly with your fellow man?

The way of a man with a maid has nothing on the way of candidates with the voters.

One way to keep The Echo coming regularly is to pay up your subscription on time.

HUGE NET UNDER BRIDGE SAVES WORKERS.

THIS should come under the heading of "Oddities in the News," but it equally fits in these columns for reason of the importance of place.

Steel workers enjoy notoriously brief lives. One slip and the battle for economic freedom ends for a steel worker when he plays with rivets a hundred or so feet in air.

For this reason we are glad to note that steps have been taken to insure the safety of workers on the Golden Gate bridge now being constructed to link San Francisco and Oakland, California.

While no deaths have occurred the directors of the district building the structure have ordered huge nets to extend the entire length of the structure. This is the first time that such a safety appliance has ever been used in major bridge construction work.

One of the cotton cord nets, similar to those used for trapeze performers, will cost $82,400. It will be 42,000 feet long and 110 feet wide and will be ready to catch an unlucky bridge worker just fifteen feet after he loses his balance. Falling workmen will be much better off than twenty of their fellow-laborers, who made the supreme sacrifice in the construction of an earlier bridge.

Wonder what became of the man who was asking for hot weather a couple of months ago?

Advertising is a great force when hitched to a great business; link it to a failure and it can't perform miracles.

People are quoting Thomas Jefferson today who wouldn't have been on his side if they had been alive with the Virginian.

SCIENCE AIDS HEALTH.

IF the thyroid gland, in the neck of a child fails to function, and the blood receives no secretion, the child's physical growth is stunted and mental development halted. Hence, we have a cause for idiocy and stunted growth.

Other glands furnish vital secretions in the human body, but only two, those of the adenoids any thyroid, so far have been obtained in pure form, valuable for medicinal use. Adrenaline was isolated thirty-five years ago, and made synthetically in 1904.

Feeding with the thyroid gland or its extract has hitherto been the only treatment available when the human thyroid fails, and even this was difficult to dose properly. Now, thanks to two British doctors, who have succeeded in synthesizing thyroxin, the hormone produced by the thyroid gland, victims, whose glands have failed to function, can receive accurate treatment, which in the near future will also be reasonably priced.

At present, we are informed, the entire human race has only about fifteen tons of it in their bodies, and it is more precious than diamonds.

Personally, people in Bay St. Louis should encourage the industries that employ people here and the only way to do this is to buy the goods that are made here.

One of the phenomena of human existence is the way two men, of equal honesty of intention, are able to look at the same facts and draw entirely different conclusions.

CONSOLIDATED RURAL SCHOOLS

IT is gratifying to consider the improved schools that are now available to rural pupils all over the country. This is due, largely, to consolidated schools, which take the place of several smaller schools. The Echo is carrying in its columns at present official promulgation to the effect the Kilm Consolidated School district is to embrace more territory, in effect spreading the usefulness of the school and offering its advantages over a territory that will give more opportunity to a larger number of young people than heretofore.

In the United States today there are more than 15,000 consolidated schools and additional consolidations are proceeding at the rate of three a day for the entire year. The work has far to go, however, when one considers that there are still approximately 160,000 one-teacher schools. This number is decreasing at the rate of 5,000 a year, it is estimated.

We do not decry the one-teacher school. Hancock county has had them for generations and they have turned out many a man and woman who have taken their proper place in the sphere of usefulness. We have had them in Bay St. Louis, Waveland and at all other points of the county that today have accredited schools.

It has performed its task in a splendid manner and we know of no more heroic figure in the social life of any community than the brave little woman, who undertakes the management of a one-teacher school, usually without much compensation, either in the way of cash or appreciation.

However, thousands of them can be eliminated through consolidated grammar schools, which will give to all students in a given district a better, more efficient school, as far as the physical plant goes. With more teachers, of equal ability, it should also afford better training.

Just as a number of weak schools are consolidated into better and graded schools, so do we find consolidated high schools. This usually embraces a number of districts which while maintaining in each district a graded school, sustains at a central point an improved high school. Some of them, miles from railroads, would surprise those who have not looked into this development.

This has been in effect in Bay St. Louis, the local high school serving the Waveland and Pearl River section of the county as well as the interior to advantage.

The people of Hancock County should keep alive to this possible method of increasing the physical capacity of our own school system. The consolidation plan, of the Bay High School, the board of supervisors paying the city the proper pro rata for students from the county, has brought to rural students, wherever put into effect, greater possibilities, and there is no insurmountable objection to the realization of the hope that the day will come when many thousands of rural students will be able to attend a high school that will rate equally with those in the larger county seats.

THE TOLL OF SPEED.

DAILY newspapers are filled with accounts of tragedies that in each instance, hardly with exception, rob the home circle of some loved one; that brings crushing blow and lasting sorrow to the bosom of mother, father, wife or husband; that leaves the indelible scar of grief. Bulk of these casualties are due to the automobile driven by some lunatic or another, not to the auto but to the irresponsible driver. Some one apparently in great hurry, going to a fire, seeking to save one in immediate danger, rushing to a hospital with some one whose life hangs by a slender thread. But the truth is—going nowhere.

This is daily in thousands of communities over the country, our own Bay St. Louis not excepted. There seems no valid excuse for the toll tragedy takes each day. The State highway department and the federal set-up as well, if one travels over highways will note every precaution is taken to save the driver from his carelessness. No pains nor expense has been spared. In cities, even as small as Bay St. Louis, we find parking lines drawn, speed limits marked, one-light car owners either admonished or arrested and made to pay the penalty as a matter of correction.

Statistics show that during the year of 1935 not one passenger of millions carried to and fro over the country by railroads were killed by accident. While on the other hand figures of fatalities caused by faulty automobile and truck driving are alarming, and—growing more all the time. One naturally asks, where will this daily slaughter of men, women and children stop? Not fine but jail sentences would contribute appreciably to a reduction of the number. No one is safe today from the speedster and irresponsible driver.

SEE IT AT HOME.

IF the sun rose only once a year in Bay St. Louis, its colorful arrival would be greeted with brass bands and a civic outpouring of delighted inhabitants.

If sleepy citizens would wake up early enough on just one morning, they would secure the same thrill of enjoyment as the earth turns to greet its source of light. From any point along the Bay-Waveland beach one sees the gorgeous sunrise—as it emerges from the distant gulf water-horizon preceded by a million tints of dresden hues. This section of the Gulf Coast directly facing the east affords a better view than elsewhere from the Mississippi shoreline.

If you think this is applesauce get out of bed tomorrow when the whistles blow, watch the stars fade and the eastern horizon come to life, tinted with the hues that defy brush of artist and all words of description. You will be amply repaid for your trouble.

If one were away from home, traveling other lands and were told of the sunrise from gulf waters there would be a special effort to see the unforgettable painting of nature every morning. This is written with a view of bringing to mind the things we have here possibly and in many cases positively prettier than elsewhere. One needs only to make a search and a sense of realization and a little journey of quest will be amply rewarded. Bay St. Louis and vicinity, as well as the Coast, are sections rich in nature's lavishness.

THE composer of "Maytime" has been signed to handle the musical details of the screen version. On the stage it was a starring vehicle for Peggy Wood but Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy will do the leads on the screen.

The Marx Brothers have started rehearsals for their new picture, "A Day at the Races." They plan to try it out on the stage in some of the cities of the Pacific coast before they screen it.

The latest development in color has been used to make a short entitled "Cavalcade of Texas." It centers around the centennial and President Roosevelt is seen for the first time, in color.

In Luzon, in the Philippines, exhibitors have trouble as natives throw bolo knives at the screen when they disapprove of the villain. In fact, most of the theaters now use paper screens which they sometimes replace as many as three times during a performance.

Katherine Cornell still refuses to go on the screen despite many offers. It was reported that during her appearance in a Los Angeles theater one producer offered her a contract in which she could name her own price.

Edward Arnold was born Guenther Schneider on New York's East Side and he has had a hard time to get to the top. Success came to him at the age of forty years. He realizes that the average success of a star's life lasts only about five years and for that reason he is very cautious about money matters and has taught his children the value of the dollar. Mr. Arnold is now working on Edna Ferber's "Come and Get It" as Barney Glasgaw.

It will be recalled that Miss Oberon sued the company because Miss Dietrich was given the role in "The Garden of Allah" for which Miss Oberon had been signed. She sued for $125,000 and it is reported that she received about $90,000.

Jack Benny will be in "College Holiday" after "The Big Broadcast of 1937" is finished.

"Prisoner of Shark Island" Drama of Man's Betrayal

SNATCHED from the shadow of the noose, he was sent to an island hell to suffer an agony worse than death!

Telling the true story of the most tragic figure in American history, 20th Century's "The Prisoner of Shark Island" comes to the A. & G. Theater this Sunday and Monday, July 25 and 26, starring Warner Baxter with Gloria Stuart and a supporting cast of over one thousand.

Dipping into the hectic days following the close of the Civil War, the picture depicts the assassination of Lincoln and the flight of his assassin to the country home of Baxter, a doctor.

For the unintentional crime of setting the broken leg of a man about whom he knew nothing, Baxter is arrested. In the hysteria that follows, Baxter is sentenced to life imprisonment at the dreaded Federal prison on the Dry Tortugas.

In stark, terrifying fashion the picture reveals the physical and spiritual agonies of this unjustly sentenced man, his desperate attempt at escape, his courage under the brutal degradation of prison life.

Finally a devastating epidemic of yellow fever brings a turn in his fortunes. With the prison doctor, himself ill of the fever, Baxter is temporarily restored to his former position as he fights to stem the tide of death. A happy climax brings the close of this profound saga of courage and strength.

John Ford, whose direction of "The Informer" has won the highest honors, directed "The Prisoner of Shark Island." Under the direct supervision of Darryl F. Zanuck, Nunnally Johnson wrote the screen story from the biography of Dr. Samuel Alexander Mudd.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

CRIPPLED CHILDREN.

(Jackson Daily News)
SOME of the Rotary clubs in Mississippi are giving consideration to a humanitarian plan well worth while. It is the establishment of a state hospital for the treatment of crippled children.

Nearly all orthopedic surgery in Mississippi just now is limited to the practice of a few specialists in that work. There are thousands of crippled children they cannot reach, even if they were financially able to treat them free of charge. Many orthopedic cases go to Memphis each year where Dr. Willis Campbell and associates are doing a great work.

Brother Rotarians, why not start now raising a fund for the purpose, and get the movement in formative shape before convening of the next regular session of the legislature.

If the task looks too large, invite the Lions, Kiwanians, Civitans, and other altruistic organizations, to lend helping hands. Surely the legislature, if proffered a goodly fund for construction work, would agree to provide support.

In a speech at Ellisville Conner declared that the daily press of Mississippi "is for sale just like a can of sardines over a grocery counter." The venom behind that falsehood is that only one daily newspaper in Mississippi is supporting Conner. However, the brethren of the press are accustomed to being insulted by the man who was Governor before Hugh White became gov-

TEACHERS OF THE STATE ARE GROSSLY UNDERPAID.

(Clarion-Ledger)
DEFICIT is a word that must not occur again in Mississippi schools," declares State Superintendent of Education J. S. Vandiver. That is fine.

But, keep on your guard, Mr. Vandiver. When times get a little better you will find the woods full of two by four educators telling about "vision," and "education," and how our "poor boys and girls should have better opportunities."

What they will really be interested in, however, is the creation of more and better jobs in the hope that they may grab off a little extra money for themselves.

Under a new Mississippi law, which was passed a quarter of a century late, budget deficits are prohibited. As a result county superintendents, planning for next session, are keeping within the appropriation. That is what everybody else is trying to do.

This does not mean that the real educators—the men and women who are doing the teaching—are being properly paid. They are not. It means that the politicians in the profession have been getting what should go to those who do the work. Teachers of this state receive less for their services than hod carriers, and this should be corrected at the very earliest possible moment.

Bilbo and White

It is beginning to look in the capital like Senator Bilbo and Governor White have begun their long-predicted "drifting apart" and an open break would not be surprising any day now. The trouble is not altogether their difference of opinion with regard to the Harrison-Bilbo senatorial contest, although that fight is conceded to be one of the major causes of their "falling out." Capital politicians got a laugh a few days ago when Bilbo and White disagreed sharply over the weather. The senator wired Washington asking aid for drought-stricken areas of the state and a few days later the governor went a long way out of his way to comment that every section of Mississippi reports excellent crop prospects. Bilbo is known to frown darkly upon White's open support of Senator Harrison and the governor frowns just as darkly upon the senator's active support of Mike Conner. Open warfare may result at almost any time and on almost any pretext.

Gax Tax Grows

The excise tax on gasoline registered another big increase for the month of June and the report of Howard Dyer, motor vehicle commissioner, indicates that refunds have dropped off to about one-third of what they were in former years. Elated with the continued increase in collections, Governor White has undertaken to interpret the benefits in their effect upon the financial condition of the state government. For one thing, he points out that if the current rate of increase is maintained, the state will be able to pay off the highway paying notes in 12 years instead of 20 as provided in the highway financing act setting aside one and a quarter cents of gasoline tax for retirement of the notes. In the meantime the gasoline tax probe committee of the legislature is going ahead with its investigation and a few days ago warned the public that gasoline dealers have been cheating their customers by giving short measure amounting to as much as 20 per cent of the total purchase. The practice has been, says the committee, to "fix" pumps so they will "steal" about a gallon in each five gallons registered.

Reform Plan Killed

When Governor White turned his back on the program of the legislative-committee studying reforms in county and local government he virtually killed this latest effort to reorganize these governmental units on "a business basis," in the view of most observers. The committee was in the act of putting the finishing touches to its program when the governor announced that he would have nothing to do with it and would not submit the committee's recommendations to the forthcoming extraordinary session of the legislature. Some of the committee's proposals have met with widespread opposition in the counties and right now it seems that the whole program is about dead for the time being.

The state tax commission has received a part of its rush order for 2,000,000 additional sales tax tokens and deliveries on the remainder likely will be completed within the next few days. The new tokens are being sent out as soon as they arrive to join the original 10,000,000 placed in circulation July 1.

To Ross Collins and Adam Byrd, opposing candidates for Congress in the Fifth District goes the doubtful honor of staging the first fight of the current campaign. They "tangled" in Kemper county a few days ago.

LIFE in the summer can be made very pleasant with a tall glass of cold tea and a dainty sandwich. Cut them thin remove crusts. Sandwiches will remain fresh and moist if wrapped in oil paper and placed in a container with a tight cover. Keep in the refrigerator until needed.

Celery Sandwich Filling

To one cup mayonnaise, add 1/4 cup chopped celery. Spread between bread and insert a lettuce leaf. Green pepper or equal parts of green pepper and pimento may be used instead of celery. Grated raw carrots are good, too.

Piquant Sandwich Filling

To 1 cup mayonnaise add 1/4 cup chow chow or India relish, 1/4 cup chili sauce, 1/4 cup chopped celery 2 tablespoons chopped pimento. Spread on a layer of scantily buttered white bread, cover with shredded lettuce and then press on a slice of graham flour.

Cheese Filling

Blend 1 cream cheese with 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind, salt and 1/4 cup chopped pecans or peanuts. Spread ago over Byrd's quotation of a statement attributed to Collins and speculators had to separate them. As near as can be learned the fight ended in a "draw."

Which reminds us that several of these Congressional races are getting rather warm. Dan McGehee and Russell Ellzey, for example, are putting on a "act" during which Ellzey describes his opponent as "a playboy Congressman" and McGehee strikes back with the statement that he has seen Ellzey dressed in athletic shorts playing tennis.

Ribbon Sandwiches

Cut bread in thin slices, spread with softened butter and put together in 6 tiers, spreading each layer with a different filling—Cream cheese for the first, minced lamb for the second, mint jelly for the third, chopped hard-boiled egg for the fourth and currant jelly for the fifth; or you may use chicken, chopped nuts, olives, crisped bacon, grated cheese and a red jelly. Press together well, and wrap in cheesecloth. When ready to use slice down in quarter-inch slices.

Bread and Butter Sandwiches

Dainty bread and butter sandwiches are always in good taste upon any occasion. They may be shaped in any of the fancy shapes. Plain sweet butter is hardly to be surpassed, but colored and flavored butters lend variety and are quite fastidious. To color, add a few drops of vegetable color to creamed butter, working it in smoothly.

Lemon butter is made by creaming 1/4 cup butter with 1/4 teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1/2 teaspoon grated rind.

For red butter put 1 pimento thru a sieve and blend with 1-3 cup of butter.

1 small onion
1/4 cup liverwurst
Few drops lemon juice
3 tablespoons mayonnaise.
Put the pickles and onion thru the food chopper. Work the liverwurst into a paste and add the pickles, onion, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Spread thickly between slices of rye bread. Serve beer and a green salad with these sandwiches.

Cucumber and Tongue Sandwiches
1/2 cup chopped cucumber
1/2 teaspoon onion juice
1 tablespoon mixed green pepper
1/2 cup minced cold boiled tongue
Mayonnaise.
Mix all ingredients and add enough mayonnaise to moisten. Spread between thin slices of white bread.

Ham Sandwich Filling

To 1 cup ground ham add 1/4 cup chopped sweet pickles, 1/4 cup chopped celery and mayonnaise or tomato catsup to spread. Add salt and pepper to taste. From 1 to 3 hard-boiled eggs may be added.

OPEN SANDWICHES

Cut rye bread in round pieces and spread with butter and anchovy paste. Place a thin slice of tomato on top and cover with a layer of mayonnaise. Sprinkle with paprika.

Apple Sandwich

Select a large red juicy apple, wash and core but do not peel. With a cookie cutter cut thinly sliced bread into rounds the size of an apple. Blend some peanut butter with sufficient honey to make it spread easily. Spread the bread and slice the apple. Put together sandwich fashion.

Coin Made in 1721

Found in Biloxi

Discovery of a 1721 colonial coin has recalled the days Biloxi ruled the Province of Louisiana stretching from the Gulf to Canada, says a recent Associated Press intelligence.

Eddie Blake dug up the old coin near the Biloxi Yacht Club. It was made of copper and bore French and Latin inscriptions.

Numismatists said the coin was one of the first sent to Biloxi for distribution in the colony, which in 1721 consisted of nine military and judicial districts including the territory of the Wabash and Illinois as well as the Alabama.

The province was governed by the superior council, which met at Fort Louis, present site of a Biloxi hotel, lighthouse and beach homes.

When the coins were brought to Biloxi, the experts said, the Western company of the Indies was flourishing and John Law was directing promotional activities in France which later collapsed and became the famous "Mississippi Bubble."

"Submarine Houses" and "Coolers" Keep Dwellers in 120-Degree Zone Comfortable in Summer

Indio, California, July 12. Residents of Imperial and Coachella Valley, in extreme Southern California, where the summer heat frequently registers 120 degrees and over, this summer are building windowless "submarine houses" to escape the discomforts of high temperatures.

The idea was started here last spring by a householder who was unable to send his family away for the hot months. Adjacent to his regular home he built a room, 10 feet square. The walls and roof were of sheet iron. Over the top of the new room he built a shed-like structure with a roof of wood.

In the space between the wooden shed roof, over the sheetiron, the builder placed a water pipe with holes cut at close intervals.

When the water is turned on the streams cascade over the roof and down the sheetiron sides. Inside, an electric fan circulates the air, which is drawn through one vent and blown out through another.

Temperatures inside the shelter are 25 to 35 degrees cooler than outside.

Already more than 400 of these "submarine houses," so-called because they are "under water" have been built here and the idea is spreading all over the heat zone.

The average cost ranges from $75 to $100.

In El Centro, another Valley town, the residents have a different idea how to be comfortable. They construct home-made "coolers" and use them for sleeping.

The cooler consists of a wooden framework, eight or nine feet high and about a yard wide, and is placed adjacent to a bedroom window. The cooler is covered with burlap and a waterpipe at the top of the cooler keeps the burlap wet.

A wooden conduit about 18 inches in diameter connects the cooler with the bedroom. Inside the cooler is an electric fan that blows the water-cooled air through the conduit and into the bedroom.

U. S. Cruiser With Proud Record Cheats The Junk Pile

San Francisco, Cal., July 12. A sea story, spiced with superstition comes from the skeleton crew of a once-proud United States Navy Cruiser which cheated the junk man. The trim fighting ship was launched at Chester, Pa., in 1883 as the U. S. S. Cruiser Chicago of the famed White Fleet; was renamed the Alton after gallant service in the Spanish-American War; then, after World War service, decommissioned to become sleeping quarters for submarine crews at Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, and finally sold for junk.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

Passing Away of Horace Massie.

The press of New Orleans recently chronicled the death of Horace Massie, for many years a resident of Pass Christian and well known at that time in Bay St. Louis. The passing away of Mr. Massie brings back a flow of reminiscent thought. It was he, who, during the first of January, 1899, practically set (by hand) all of the type that went to "make up" the first issue of The Sea Coast Echo, which was printed and published Saturday, January 9th, of that year. Failure of The Echo's newspaper press to arrive in time the paper was printed on the press of the Coast Beacon, at Pass Christian, while the type used was set in Bay St. Louis. Mr. Massie not only printed the first issue of The Echo, 1000 copies, but "made up" the forms and read part of the type proofs. His sister, Mrs. James Farrell, the former Miss Emily Massie, still resides at the Pass. He was a splendid type of a man and his co-operation in helping to get out the first issue of The Sea Coast Echo is still appreciated even though a long span of years has elapsed.

By Auto to California.

Long before the sun had risen Sunday morning an auto carrying Mrs. Baumgartner and daughter, Miss Olive May, who spent the winter and spring residing at the Tulane Apartments, left with the radiator pointed to the westward with Los Angeles, California, as the ultimate point of destination. Young Mr. Alvin Genin, grandson of Mrs. D. H. Boyle, accompanied the little party and plans, after spending a while in the Golden State, to return by way of a different route, to visit his sister, Mrs. Paul Leitz, who resides at Bayota, Minn., who with her husband, will be pleasantly remembered as visitors to Bay St. Louis the greater part of last winter.

Finishing New Avenue Dwelling.

Contractor Alphonse Fayard is completing the one-story frame dwelling on No. 133 Carroll avenue, corner Second, opposite Bay High School, and the final finishing touches are in process. This attractive bungalow, a well-finished home, is for Ernest F. Erath, retired naval attaché, who with Mrs. Erath will make Bay St. Louis their future home. They are in New Orleans awaiting the completion of the home. Mr. Erath purchased the lot recently, Mrs. Jeannette Carmichael, realtor, making the sale.

Priests on Gulf Outing.

The Rev. Dennis O'Sullivan, of the Church of the Nativity at Biloxi, one of the most popular members of the cloth, was the genial host on a trip to Ship Island, from Biloxi, Thursday of last week, having as his guests for the day the Rev. William Bauer, S. V. D., St. Augustine, Bay St. Louis; the Rev. Andrew Gmelch, pastor of our lady of the Gulf, Bay St. Louis; the Rev. Bede, O. S. B., Cullman, Ala.; the Rev. C. Webster, S. V. D., St. Augustine Seminary, Bay St. Louis; and the Rev. F. J. Ostendorf, Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. Edwin Edwards Tells.

Mrs. Edwin Edwards, whose late husband of Bay St. Louis, was the principal owner of the Ford automobile agency, Biloxi, who built the extensive brick structure where the business was housed, has sold the building to Edward Barq, owner and manufacturer of Barq's Root-beer, situated out Lameuse street, for a cash consideration said to be over $10,000. Mr. Barq whose product is a favorite in Bay St. Louis and elsewhere, has begun improvements reported to cost approximately $5000 and will increase the number of employees, a definite sign of upward trend of conditions.

"Marchy" On Vacation Visit.

A princely welcome awaited that prince of fellows, Marchmont Schwartz, of national football fame, who recently arrived home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwartz and their two other sons and is spending three weeks' vacation between the Gulf section and New Orleans, equally and superlatively popular in both sections. "Marchy," as home and his dear friends over the nation affectionately term him is coach at Creighton, Omaha, Nebraska, after serving several years at Notre Dame, from which institution he graduated.

Personal and General

RETURN FROM CRUISE
TO TROPICAL LAND
AND WATERS.

RECENTLY returned from a seventeen-day cruise of the Caribbean seas, Miss Daisy Bordages, accompanied by Miss Elsa Mauffray, tells of the delight of this sea trip and visit to tropical lands of British Honduras. Landing at Puerto Cortes the party enjoyed a number of side journeys by train, with Guatemala as their chief object of destination, where to their agreeable surprise they found anything but tropical weather. Owing to the high altitude, the climate is delightfully cool and cold by night.

"There and at all adjacent places we found the natives of Indian blood, small of stature, eager to trade," said Miss Bordages. "They are equally suspicious of a trade or deal as they are superstitious in their relation. In fact their religion is largely of this nature. They need no temples or churches for worship, but fall prostrate on the ground in any convenient place as the impulse urges and pay tribute to their deity."

"We enjoyed both the journey and visit to such an extent," concluded Miss Bordages, "that we already are planning a somewhat similar trip to the waters and shores of the tropics next summer. It is entirely different from other trips I have taken, in fact, an entirely different world. Our visit to Mayan is one we will never forget and we hope to return to this spot where buried ruins of a city give mute evidence of where once, centuries before the white men trod the soil of America a people of higher civilization made their abode." Miss Mauffray is equally enthusiastic of the trip and visit.

TO BAY ST. LOUIS FOR REST AND RECREATION.

Hon. and Mrs. S. Allen Bordelon, residents of Marksville, in Avoyelles Parish, La., came to Bay St. Louis immediately following adjournment of the special session of Legislature of the Pelican State, of which august body Mr. Bordelon is a veteran member. Following several weeks of strenuous labors in legislative capacity Representative Bordelon came direct to Bay St. Louis in quest of his rest and recreation, accompanied by his accomplished wife, the former Miss Adele Spotorno.

TO NEW YORK BY STEAMER DIXIE
AND RETURN.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bryan, whose hospitable home with its charming and cultural atmosphere, on the beach Boulevard, at Cedar Point, returned home a few days ago from a Steamer trip to New York City, on board the palatial "Dixie" steamer, combining business with pleasure. During their absence, Mrs. John Dugan, of New Orleans, a sister of Mrs. Bryan, resided at the Bryan home with young Messrs. John and James Bryan. The journey and visit to New York proved most enjoyable, enjoying the summer climate of the metropolis at its best.

Mrs. W. J. GEX, JR., AND PARTY AWAY ON INTERESTING ITINERARY.

Mrs. W. J. Gex, Jr., is accompanying her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Eldridge, who reside at Abbeville, La., on a most interesting and varied itinerary, combining domestic with foreign lands. After visiting the Centennial Exposition at Dallas, Texas, they continued their journey to San Antonio from which point the party continued on to Monterey, Old Mexico, and from there to Mexico City, where they will remain in the land of the Aztecs, enjoying the cool atmosphere of 7,500 feet altitude and the exotic flavor and atmosphere of a land of history and romance and of music, dance and laughter.

Miss Louise Kichell, of Abbeville, is also a member of the interesting party. The trip is made by auto, one of the first to traverse the international auto highway between Laredo, Texas and Mexico City, officially opened a few days ago.

FORMER RESIDENT
VISITING BAY CITY
RELATIVES AND FRIENDS.

Mrs. W. H. Pickett, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is visiting relatives and friends of her former home town and is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. M. L. Ansley, and Mrs. Ansley and family at their home in Carroll avenue. Mrs. Pickett before her marriage was well known as Miss Margaret Ansley and was also a sister of the late M. Emmett Ansley. The brother she is visiting had not seen his sister in fifteen years. The reunion is a happy one. Mrs. Pickett is entertained at a round of social affairs and her visit "back home," one that will be memorable.

A lady of engaging personality, definitely charming she is adding, during her stay, many names to her long list of old friends. She plans to be on the Coast for about a month.

Laurent, Horace, Odgen and Charles Kergosien of Bay St. Louis.
